R. Fitzgerald, German native; Mrs. Becky Johnson, Extension Agent; and Mrs. T. C. Harvey, Outgoing County President.

Extension Homemakers Club Hold Achievement Day

The Appomattox Extension Homemakers Clubs held their annual achievement day program on Thursday, November 30th at the Woodmen of the World Building with a covered dish luncheon. Over 100 ladies attended.

Mrs. T. C. Harvey, County Chairman, presided. Devotions were led by Mrs. Ella Anderson. Mrs. Cliff Plunkett welcomed and recognized guests present.

A report of the Fall Conference was given by Mrs. Virgil Hudson.

Reading certificates were presented by Mrs. Florence Trent to 66 members who had read five books in at least three different categories.

Mrs. Cliff Plunkett gave the secretary's report. The 1972 Club Reports were given by Mrs. T. C. Harvey.

The officers elected for 1973 and 1974 were Mrs. Florence Trent, County Chairman and Mrs. Cliff Plunkett, County Secretary.

The Homemakers Creed was repeated.

Norma Moore sang the "Extension Homemakers" song accompained by Cecil Kay Harvey.

There were on display exhibits that members had made during the year, also cook books, and notepaper for sale.

For the afternoon program Mrs. Karen Falls, Vepco Home Economist presented a program on "Christmas Ideas" with a display of many beautiful arrangements.

Mrs. J. R. Fitzgerald a native of Germany from Lynchburg gave a talk on "German Christmas Customs" and had on display some arrangements used at Christmas time in Germany.

She pointed out that Christmas instead of celebrating one day it was a three day celebration. Candles were used to light the tree instead of electric bulbs as in America.
